Whether you need gloves to protect your hands against cuts, burns, frostbite, abrasion, puncture, chemical exposure, or biohazards, the variety of choices has never been better! Developments in fiber technology— Brands like Kevlar® and Dyneema® have resulted in a whole new generation of gloves that provide greater protection, yet are much less bulky than traditional materials like leather or cotton. Every type of respirator has a different fit, so no respirator will fit everyone. Therefore OSHA requires all disposable half-mask and full-face respirators, as well as, tight fitting supplied air face pieces, to be fit tested by an approved fit test method, which can be achieved through the use of one of the test kits found on this page.

Qualitative fit testing involves the introduction of a harmless, odorous, or irritating substance (such as smoke, saccharin or Bitrex) into the breathing zone around the respirator being worn. If no odor or irritation is detected, you have a properly fitted respirator

QUALITATIVE FIT-TEST KITS

- Kits available from NORTH®, 3M® and ALLEGRO®
- Meets OSHA qualitative fit testing requirements
- Sweet and bitter solutions, all kits include nebulizers, Tyvek® enclosures and instructions
- Replacement accessories available for all kits
